

The Guest Speaker is retired USAF Master Sergeant & currently, Amtrak K-9 officer Micah Jones & Retired K-9 Labrador Staff SGT Summer with Lion President Anne Nettles

At the Regular March 8, 2022 Regular Meeting of the Four County Lions Club, (Memories Charcoal House) The Guest Speaker is retired USAF Master Sergeant, Amtrak K9 Officer Micah Jones and Retired K-9 Staff Sergeant Summer. The retired canine partner's name is Staff Sergeant Summer, a 10-year old female Labrador. Summer retired from the Marines Corps in 2013 as a Military Working Dog and proud War Dog. She most recently retired as a Police Explosive Detection Dog where she served proudly for 7 years. While deployed she conducted a substantial number of routine patrols, searching and positively identifying countless weapons caches and improvised explosive devices, swept, and cleared routes for the troops and involved in limitless fire fights with insurgents. Summer put her life on the line to protect, defend and saved countless troops lives. As a result of these types of exposures in the war zone environment and other traumatic events Summer experienced in Iraq & Afghanistan, was diagnosed with canine PTSD in December 2015. She copes with this diagnosis daily. For her heroic, extraordinary valor and service, Staff Sergeant Summer received the Lois K Pope K-9 Medal of Courage in May 2018 by demonstrating exceptional valor and service to our Country. She received the PDSA Commendation Award in July 2017 for her unparalleled devotion and enrichment to all that served with her. Recently, Summer was named the 2021 American Humane Military Hero Dog of the Year!

The Four County Lions Club is asking all Lions members to take a moment of silence today for all 530 Lion members in the 23 Clubs throughout Ukraine LCI District 134. We care about all Ukraine citizens and the millions of refugees fleeing due to most of the infrastructure and homes has been degraded. One of the worse humanitarian tragedy's in over 8 decades in Europe.

Lions Members of Four County
We Wish Nothing but Peace and Resolution for all the Citizens of Ukraine!

The Four County Lions Club recently was honored by Leader Dog for the Blind for financially Sponsoring a Labrador puppy and received Four Wallet Size Photos, a puppy profile, official sponsorship, a plush puppy. Pictured L-R is Anne Nettles, President and Patti Lease. The Future Leader Dog Name is Unique. The club will sew the new stellar patch on the Banner as a welcome addition and reminder, providing the public an insight to the many great programs where the club is making a difference and creating a legacy that will benefit someone life that is sightless.
